From the Wagon Masters

Greetings from Branson, MO. Patti and I have been traveling for 3 weeks taking the round-about way to the FMCA rally in Gillette, WY, July 7-10. Some highlights on the road include visiting Petrified Forest NP; swimming in the Blue Hole and kayaking in Santa Rosa, NM; Elks Lodge in Lubbock, TX. We spent 5 nights in Fredericksburg, TX at Lady Bird Johnson Municipal Park, a beautiful 330-acre recreation area! The park has 90 large grassy well-spaced RV sites with many shade trees, a large swimming pool, and an 18 hole golf course. Highly recommended! In Branson, we camped at the Escapees Turkey Creek RV Park on the river.

THANK YOU to Joy Gilles and Judy Brown for volunteering to be Trail Bosses for the California Coasters 25th Anniversary event at Flying Flags RV Resort, October 5-7! This will be a huge and exciting event so keep your eye open to the Chatter and any email blasts for more information.

I learned yesterday that the annual Holiday Party is good to go! Mark your calendar to be at Wine Country RV Resort, November 30-December 2.

Let's go camping in 2022! Yes, it is only July, but we need to create a schedule for next year. If you have any ideas, please share with Steve and me. And we are always looking for Trail Bosses and Assistant Trail Bosses.

Happy Trails,

Notes from the Editor

The Registration and Activity Schedule for the October Rally are attached to the email but not part of the Chatter. Be sure to check them out, it should be a great time!

The August Chatter will be sent out the first week of August as DC and I will be traveling during July, arriving home on July 31.

SUNSHINE REPORT

By: Sylvia Burns

It was wonderful to see so many Coaster faces at the "Celebration of Life" service for Dick Gibbs. I know Dick would have liked all the love and support that was given to Char. On a less happy note, Roger Rendall took a nasty fall during the night and connected with a door jamb. Like all head wounds, it bled a lot. Even the paramedics could not stanch the flow, so off to the hospital he went. A day and a half later, after numerous tests, plus 14 staples in his head, Roger is now at home recuperating.

Got an email from Rhonda Catron. Seems she had a stroke last February while in Arizona. Thankfully, it was a mild one but it affected her right side (arm, leg, and speech). She's now having physical therapy and improving every day. Rhonda says she is looking forward to seeing everyone at the Christmas rally. Five couples, plus Dave and I will be attending the FMCA International Rally in Gillette. Afterwards, we, along with Randy and Doris Gibbs will be doing some traveling. I expect everyone to stand on their own two feet (no falling) and no illnesses since I will be gone 6 weeks and there will not be a "Sunshine Report" for August.

Have a great summer and keep well.
